

Sage Built Creates “Tomorrow’s Leader”

2011 NC Children’s Promise Benefit Home

Pittsboro, NC (October 10, 2010) - Windjam Development Group of Cary, NC is proud to announce the 2011 Children’s Promise Benefit Home is now under construction at “The Hamptons”. Sage Built crafts fine custom homes in premiere Triangle communities, particularly inside Raleigh’s Beltline.

Tomorrow’s Leader - is the newest home design by Sage Built. A Hill-Country Estate home design perfectly positioned on rolling acreage featuring a rustic oversized centered fireplace in the Grande room. “We are excited to bring this year’s benefit home to the Hamptons, a true testament to the commitment we continue to make to this historic property,” said Rex Vick, Jr.,

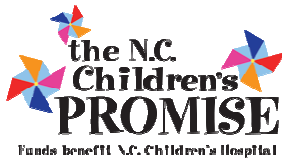

CEO of Windjam Development and developer of The Hamptons.

About the Hamptons - The Hamptons, home to the 2009 and 2010 annual Children’s Promise Gala, is a richly historic Chapel Hill area luxury community featuring 88 home sites, mountain vistas, tumbling meadows, and the original homestead of Dr. E.H. Ward, a 19th century traveling doctor. The Hamptons is ideally located just around the corner from Ferrington Village and minutes from Jordan Lake and downtown Chapel Hill.

The Hamptons has home sites from 1 to over 6 acres and priced from the low $200Ks to low $300Ks. Homes priced from the $800’s.

About the NC Children’s Promise - In early 2002, North Carolina Children’s Hospital and Curtis Media Group formed a partnership to raise funds for the hospital through a campaign called “The N.C. Children’s Promise.” The first N.C. Children’s Promise event later that year was a radio-thon featuring several Curtis Media Group stations broadcasting live from the hospital lobby—raised nearly $200,000, one phone call at a time.

Since that initial success, the N.C. Children’s Promise has grown into a year-round fundraising campaign that includes numerous events, projects, and partnerships throughout the community. It is also the adopted name of the Children’s Hospital’s fundraising arm.

Proceeds from the Tomorrow’s Leader will be donated to Children’s Promise.
