

The Hamptons Hosts Record-Breaking Hospital Gala

Pittsboro, N.C. –The Hamptons, a luxury community near Jordan Lake, is excited to announce that the third annual N.C. Children's Hospital gala surpassed a record-breaking fundraising net of more than $60,000. The Kentucky Derby-themed gala, entitled “Run for the Promise,” was organized by the N.C. Children's Promise and held on Saturday, May 2. The Hamptons donated its Historic Homeplace as the gala's venue, playing host to hundreds of guests from across the state who purchased tickets and sponsorships to attend the Children's Hospital event.

The Run for the Promise Gala combined the elegance of the Kentucky Derby with exciting entertainment. Guests enjoyed heavy hors d'oeuvres and cocktails fitting with the Derby Day theme combined with live music and dancing, lawn games, a silent auction, and plasma screens broadcasting the “Run for the Roses.” Net proceeds from the gala will benefit programs and services left unfunded by the Children's Hospital's clinical revenues.

"The Hamptons was the ideal venue for our third annual gala," said Crystal Miller, Director of the N.C. Children's Promise. "The historic charm of the Homeplace, the rolling, green hills—it was like being in Kentucky for the actual Derby. And through The Hamptons' generosity and logistical support, we literally saved thousands in expenses, and that means more money goes back to the Children's Hospital."

"I am inspired by all the folks who stepped forward to assist us in this cause," said Rex Vick, Jr., CEO of Windjam Development and developer of The Hamptons. "It is a testament to what the Children's Hospital symbolizes—not just in this area but throughout the state. We're ecstatic to have helped the hospital exceed its fundraising goal."
