

Windjam Builder Marketing Group Hosts Historic Realtor Event

Pittsboro, N.C. – February 19, 2008 – Windjam Builder Marketing Group hosted a Realtor luncheon on February 8th at The Hamptons, a historic luxury community near Jordan Lake.

Thirty-five Realtors and five loan officers visited the historic Ward home place within The Hamptons for an educational presentation and catered lunch. The Realtors arrived in two touring buses and toured Phase 1 of the community. During the visit, they discovered the unique history of The Hamptons, learned about the award-winning custom builder team and received community informational materials.

“We were very honored to host such a fine group,” said Rex Vick, Jr, CEO of Windjam Builder Marketing Group. “Everyone had a great time and really enjoyed experiencing this historic project of which we remain exceedingly proud.”

Windjam also hosted a drawing for the attending Realtors. Prizewinners received four gift baskets that included Hamptons’ signature wine, engraved crystal wine glasses, candy jars, custom chocolate, and specialty coffee from A Southern Season.
